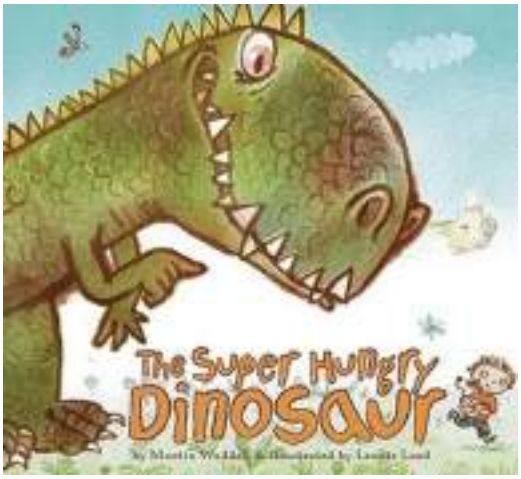
English – This week we will be looking at 'The Super Hungry Dinosaur' by Martin Waddell.



Here is a video of the story if you haven't got the book at home.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=cgv9WvJd1jw

Here are some activities to complete from the story

*Can you make a list of reasons for the dinosaur not to eat Hal, his Mum, his Dad and his dog? Use because if you can!

*The dinosaur in this story is a Tyrannosaurus Rex, can you research what a Tyrannosaurs Rex would have eaten and find out the special name that is given to dinosaurs that eat what they do.

*Have a look at the dinosaur facts we have provided on the website, can you sort the dinosaurs into the correct group by what they eat?

* Why not try our reading comprehension activity sheet and see how much you can find out about and record the answers. There are 3 activities so you can choose to suit your child's reading abilities.

Martin Waddell wrote another story with some of the same characters: The Super Swooper Dinosaur

Talk about what is the same in this story. Do you know any other books by Martin Waddell? You can find two on our story time page!

Dinosaurs

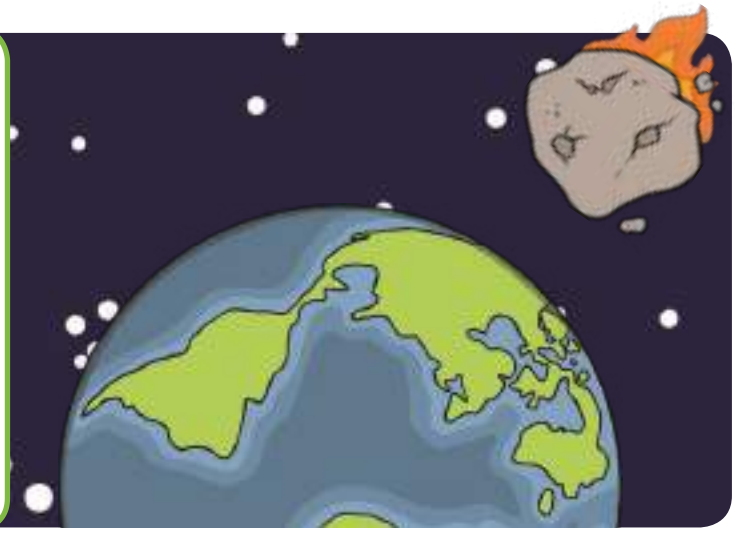
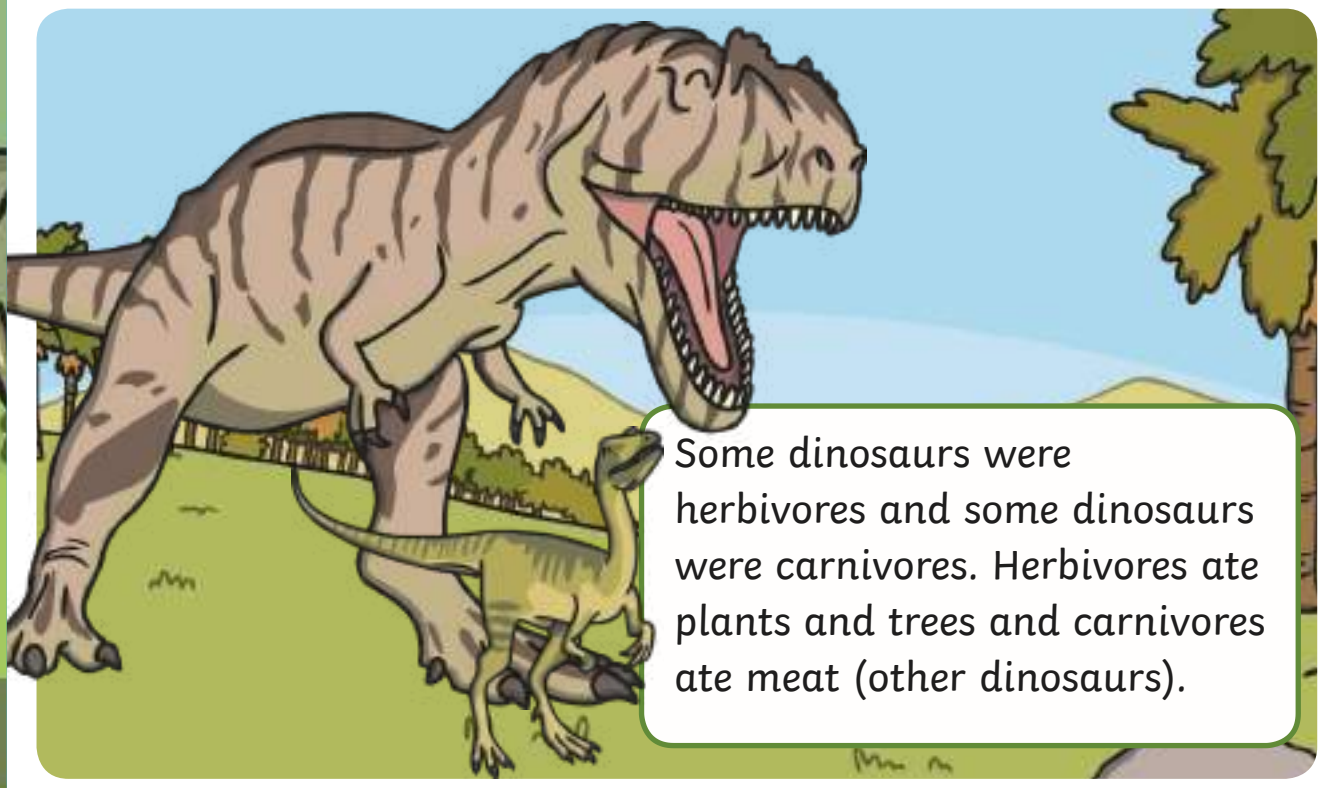
Dinosaurs lived millions of years ago on Earth, before people. Scientists think they became extinct 65 million years ago when an asteroid hit Earth and changed the weather.



Dinosaurs were reptiles. They lived on land and laid eggs. There were many different kinds of dinosaurs. Some dinosaurs were small and some dinosaurs were enormous. Some dinosaurs had armour-plated skin and some had fur or feathers. Some dinosaurs walked on two legs, like Tyrannosaurus Rex, and some walked on four legs, like Stegosaurus.



Some dinosaurs were herbivores and some dinosaurs were carnivores. Herbivores ate plants and trees and carnivores ate meat (other dinosaurs).
