To all Dads, Lads and other male role models

We are delighted to invite you to attend a Dads and Lads Course run by our very own Sports Coach Sam Veness.

Following on from our successful Father’s Day Breakfasts we want to tap in to positive male role models and the impact that they can have on their child’s education. Research tells us that a strong relationship with a male role model can improve self-esteem, behaviour and academic achievement.

Some of the activities may include: Model Making, Team Games, Board Games, Orienteering, Frisbee Golf.

The aims for the course are to have fun together, carry out tasks as a team, know and use positive parenting tools and be more confident.

We are looking for as many Dads and Lads as possible to sign up to this really exciting opportunity.

The course will take place at Catshill First School and Nursery between 5:00 – 6:30 on a Thursday for 5 weeks during the Autumn Term.

Please can you show your interest by completing the slip below and returning them to school by 18th September 2018.

Many thanks
