Many thanks

Has there been anything they've especially enjoyed at school lately?

What was it that worked well for them?

How are they feeling about school and the work this term?

Anything we could be doing differently do you think?

What might help?

Do you think there is anything getting in the way of them making progress?

What have you noticed is the best way to get them enthusiastic about learning?

Tell me what they are interested in and like outside school.

What's worked in the past for them with their other teachers?
