

Please find below a letter from Worcestershire County Council re Adult Learning Courses available to you all at this time. Follow the links to book a space on these courses.

Hello,

I hope you're all able to keep safe right now. Family Learning is no longer delivering in schools due to the current lockdown but we have designed some ONLINE short courses for families to do together that are all FREE for every single parent. Please could you send this email to all your parents so they can book on if they are interested?

- The link to book onto each course is under each description – please click on the link to book your place.
- Each course will email you a 30 minute fun video each day for you to watch with your children and do the activities in your own time.
- A tutor will email you throughout the course to support you, help you with the activities and look at your end results.

Book and Cook Family Activity Week Online starts Monday 11th May – Friday 15th May

Motivational Monday - Making a rainbow from any ingredients you have at home from tomatoes to cherries to peas! Ring an isolated relative and read them a book and make a rainbow in your house or garden. Tech Tuesday - Harry Potter chocolate melting (using up your left over Easter Eggs) and some Harry Potter activities. Work it out Wednesday - Making Pizza (bread roll, slice of bread, pizza base and using up beans, tins of tomatoes, sweetcorn, etc) and then writing your own Pizza cook book. Theory Thursday - Where's Wally book and making your own biscuits (flour, sugar and butter) and anything red and white to decorate them. Hiding your Wally Biscuits around the house for family to find. Feedback Friday - Making a book of all the different cooking things you tried this week to take back into school to show your teacher and class.
